Nikita Patel is a working actress with 13 years of experience and a proven ability to remember lines and hit her mark (consistently, on a good day). She recently recurred on Sweet Magnolias (Season 4) and has worked alongside Dianna Agron in The Clock (Hulu) and Erika Christensen in After All (Apple TV). She has led two theatre productions and appeared in numerous national commercials - so there's a good chance you've already seen her, even if you weren't paying full attention. Her training includes intensive work with Margie Haber and The Groundlings (both LA), along with several other esteemed coaches. Nikita brings a strong foundation in Meisner and on-camera technique, plus skills in dance (Salsa, Bachata, Bollywood) and yoga - because staying grounded is helpful, both emotionally and for long days on set. A certified Yoga Instructor specializing in Yin Yoga, she's particularly good at staying calm, present, and not spiraling between takes. She is bilingual in English and Gujarati and proudly represents her authentic Indian heritage - the good, the bad, and occasionally the very dramatic!
