I have ten years experience working on set in film and TV productions and have a real passion for screen acting. Even though I have not done stage, but have trained for it I would like the opportunity to perform on stage too. I am working on re-writing my dissertation into a script a creative writing piece from my BA Hons Modern English Studies Course from twenty years ago. I used to be an English teacher, analysing written pieces, so have a real passion for writing and producing my own creative piece for the screen.
