Yami Löfvenberg

MOVEMENT DIRECTOR , CHOREOGRAPHER & DANCE LECTURER

Yami is a mover who directs and a director who moves, a multidisciplinary artist working in the intersection of movement, theatre and cross-art.

Her core values and mission is female empowerment and to amplify black artistic voices creating an inclusive and inspiring art sector for the unheard.

She has a passion for bold, "out of the box" comedic writing, and creatives that like to rock the boat and challenge the status quo.

Thriving in open collaborative spaces, her skill of working with cross-art forms has seen her work with a multitude of diverse artists and organisations throughout her career and her speciality is storytelling using character, comedy and physicality showcases a very distinctive unique style.

Underpinning her aesthetic is her background, knowledge and love of Hip-Hop Culture and long career in dance and she describes her own work as Edutainment"= Education & Entertainment.

Working with many different abilities, and ages and with the skill to adapt to any situation, Yami is a true trailblazer in every sense.
