Hannah Julii Anderson is an anglo-Indian actress and NIDA alumni (2021). Most recently she has been seen in her award winning performance of the sold old new musical "Mates", as well as selling out her debut Edinburgh Fringe Festival (2025) show "Bibbity Bobbity Bondi", which she co-wrote, co-directed, and co-starred in. "Bibbity Bobbity Boorloo" was then mounted for the Perth Fringe Festival (2026) along with another new sold out show "Recess Duty". In these, Hannah was praised for her emotional agility, sharp comedic instincts, and incredible stage craft. From a no-nonsense cop, to the romantic lead, to a whimsical primary school teacher in the space of six months, Hannah is no stranger to elasticity and versatility (in fact she absolutely loves it!) Hannah brings clarity and vulnerability to comedy and drama alike. She is an adaptable and detailed actress with experience in classical, musical, and contemporary theatre.
