Training	I am into my third year at the Hillview School of Performing Arts and enjoying every minute of it. I have a general English dialect with no obvious regional accent. In addition, I am studying the General American Accent to increase my range of acting opportunities. I am loving this experience and eager to be given the chance to shine!!! I have been a professional fashion model since April 2016 . I have learned my trade via some of the best on-set directors which has made me very comfortable both sides of the camera.
