Supporting Artist history: I started as an SA in 2000 and have worked in the full range of productions for television and films, SFX, reconstructions and photoshoots. I have frequently taken direction and been given dialogue (or winged it in 3 ‘Rogue Traders’ for BBC. I have never been late for a shoot and am a proven attentive and reliable SA. I know my place, especially in the lunch queue.

I have a wide range of interests and experiences to draw on, and have made use of them all as a Supporting Artist since 2000. The changing shoots, scenes, locations and requirements offset the early starts and late times. Through the years my punctuality and reliability as well my attention to direction, has always been consistent.
